They shall be considered to have one seat on the Coordinating Committee, and will cast one vote.
- (d) If a town committee lacks a town organization, the Green Party of Suffolk members shall elect Coordinating Committee representatives from the towns at a Suffolk County Organization meeting. If a town committee exists in a town, the committee shall elect the representatives from that town as specified in the committee's rules.

(e) A good-faith effort must be made to publicize Coordinating Committee meetings to all Committee members. Members must be given at least one week notice of all meetings. Meetings may be held by telephone conference call, online, or similar means, provided all Committee members have access to the meeting. Coordinating Committee meetings are open to all enrolled Greens in Suffolk County.

(f) The Coordinating Committee shall follow the decision making process of the Green Party of Suffolk where applicable. A quorum shall be 4 members.

(g) The members elected from each town must reside in the town they represent.

(h) The duties of Coordinating Committee shall be as follows:

(i) Coordinate and assist the Chair and the Vice-Chair of Green Party of Suffolk at business meetings and gatherings.

(ii) Help coordinate setting of the agenda for Suffolk County Green Party business meetings, and rotate as facilitator.

(iii) Maintain contact with all current members in their district as well as all citizens in their district.

(iv) If the Chair is unable to carry out their duties, a majority vote of the Coordinating Committee may select a Vice-Chair to operate in the Chair's place as acting Chair of the Suffolk County Green Party until the Committee determines that the Chair can resume their duties, or an election is held for Suffolk County Green Party officers.

(v) Other duties as specified by the Suffolk County Green Party.

SECTION 9.09 VILLAGE CHAIR

In the event that a Village lacks a Village Committee with a Village Chair, a Village Election Chair shall be appointed by the Coordinating Committee of the Green Party of Suffolk County when requested by, and in consultation with the members from that village.

ARTICLE 10. CANDIDATE DESIGNATION, NOMINATION, AND AUTHORIZATION POLICY

SECTION 10.01 Nominations of enrolled Green Party members for public office on the Green Party line to be filled by voters of political jurisdictions solely within the county shall be determined within said jurisdictions as specified in New York State Election Law.

SECTION 10.02 Nominations of enrolled Green Party members for public office on the Green Party line for political jurisdictions that include parts of any other county, or other whole counties in New York State, shall be determined within said jurisdictions as specified by New York State Election Law.

SECTION 10.03 In the event of a Special Election, the Coordinating Committee shall be empowered to, at a properly called meeting by a majority vote of those members present at such a meeting provided a quorum is present, nominate a Green Party member for this election. Such decision will be authorized with the signature of the County Chair and the County Secretary.

SECTION 10.04 A nomination may occur at any official business meeting of the Green Party of Suffolk. Any nomination will be subject to the usual process of review and vote by the members.

SECTION 10.05 Any member of the Green Party of Suffolk may propose a candidate for nomination.

SECTION 10.06 Candidates who accept a Green Party of Suffolk nomination for office will be considered official Green candidates. As such, they should be a member of a green organization, embrace the platform of the Green Party of Suffolk, and identify themselves as a "Green candidate" including in speeches and on campaign materials.

SECTION 10.07 Candidates shall be nominated by a majority of votes of those members present. If no candidate receives a majority, the candidate with the least votes shall be struck from the ballot and an additional round shall ensue until a single candidate or "none of the above" receives a majority of those members present and voting. The candidate so selected shall be the Green Party's designated candidate.

SECTION 10.10 The County Organization, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote, may empower the Coordinating Committee of the Green Party of Suffolk to authorize the designation or nomination of any persons for office the Committee sees fit in the next election cycle.

(a) Such authorizations are subject to the restrictions set forth in this ARTICLE.

(b) Such power will end immediately on the day of the next general election.

ARTICLE 11. PLATFORM REVISION PROCESS

SECTION 11.01 The platform of the Green Party of Suffolk and all revisions will be approved by the following process:

(a) Platform revisions shall be drafted by the Green Party of Suffolk, or platform committee formed by the same at a properly called meeting.

(b) The recommended changes shall be mailed to each member of the Green Party of Suffolk requesting it in a format by which they can indicate approval or disapproval of each new or changed plank.

SECTION 11.02 The Green Party of Suffolk will institute the above process in odd-numbered years.

SECTION 11.03 The Green Party of Suffolk, or designated committee, may approve non-content changes to the platform without the need for the above described membership ratification process. Such changes may include: titles and arrangement of the planks of the platform; grammatical and stylistic changes to the wording of planks; creating and naming various subsets of the platform to be used in cases when the entire platform would be too cumbersome; combining planks; and other similar changes.

ARTICLE 12. AMENDMENTS TO THE BY-LAWS

These rules may be amended by a majority vote at a regular meeting of the Green Party of Suffolk.

ARTICLE 13. SEVERABILITY

If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, SECTION or part of these rules or any amendment thereto shall be adjudged to be invalid or otherwise rendered inoperative by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment or other judicial action shall not affect, impair, invalidate or render inoperative the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, SECTION or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment or other judicial action shall have been rendered or taken.
